

The Uncanny Valley

	4 Advanced	3 Proficient	2 Basic	1 Below Basic
Uncanny Valley Aesthetics	o product is utilizes artistic techniques (shading/crosshatching etc....) and design choices to evoke a sense of the uncanny o information is well-placed, in appropriate font, color and contributes to the overall aesthetic	o product is utilizes artistic techniques or design choices to evoke a sense of fear or urgency in an emergency o information is well-placed, in appropriate font, color and does not detract from the overall aesthetic	o product is utilizes no artistic techniques or design choices but evokes a sense of fear or urgency in an emergency o information is well-placed, in appropriate font and color and does detract from the overall aesthetic	o product is utilizes no artistic techniques or design choices and fails to evoke a sense of fear or urgency in an emergency o information is poorly placed, in inappropriate font or color and does detract from the overall aesthetic
The Uncanny Valley Graph	o group produced a graph of their own uncanny valley based on the images, clearly labeled their graph, and utilized the images as examples with explanations (4+) o group produced a graph of the theoretical uncanny valley, clearly labeled the transitions, and clearly distinguished between the two graphs while emphasizing the differences	o group produced a graph of their own uncanny valley based on the images, clearly labeled their graph, and utilized the images as examples o group produced a graph of the theoretical uncanny valley, clearly labeled the transitions, and clearly distinguished between the two graphs	o group produced a graph of their own uncanny valley based on the images, clearly labeled their graph, or utilized the images as examples o group produced a graph of the theoretical uncanny valley, clearly labeled the transitions, or clearly distinguished between the two graphs	o group produced a graph of their own uncanny valley based on the images but did not clearly label their graph, or utilized the images as examples o group produced a graph of the theoretical uncanny valley, without clearly labeled the transitions, or clearly distinguished between the two graphs
Consequences and Instances of the Uncanny	o described the likely impact of the uncanny valley in a zombie invasion utilizing documented instances from the real world (citation required) o group collected and displayed instances of the 'uncanny sensation' that has been encountered by their teammates with enough context to clearly understand (12+)	o described the likely impact of the uncanny valley in a zombie invasion utilizing examples (2+) from the real world (citation required) o group collected and displayed instances of the 'uncanny sensation' that has been encountered by their teammates with enough context to clearly understand (8+)	o described the likely impact of the uncanny valley in a zombie invasion utilizing examples (2+) from the real world o group collected and displayed instances of the 'uncanny sensation' that has been encountered by their teammates with enough context to clearly understand (4+)	o group produced a vague argument, utilizing references (0) and lived experience (0) to discuss the pros or cons of calling zombies "zombies" o group collected and displayed instances of the 'uncanny sensation' that has been encountered by their teammates without enough context to clearly understand (2+)
Individual and Organizational Preparedness	o group described how to individually prepare for intense situations with specific techniques, examples, and explanations (4+) o group discussed how to organizationally prepare of emergencies and intense situations with specific techniques, examples, and explanations (4+)	o group described how to individually prepare for intense situations with specific techniques and examples (4+) o group discussed how to organizationally prepare of emergencies and intense situations with specific techniques and examples (4+)	o group described how to individually prepare for intense situations with specific techniques (4+) o group discussed how to organizationally prepare of emergencies and intense situations with specific techniques (4+)	o group described how to individually prepare for intense situations with specific techniques (3-) o group discussed how to organizationally prepare of emergencies and intense situations with specific techniques (3-)